Ingredients

- 2 tsp olive oil
- 1 medium zucchini — chopped
- 1 15 oz container part-skim ricotta cheese
- 1½ cups shredded provolone or mozzarella, divided
- ¼ cup grated parmesan cheese
- 2 large eggs
- 1 Tbsp chopped fresh parsley
- ½ tsp salt
- ¼ tsp black pepper
- 14 pieces manicotti, uncooked (8 oz box)
- 1 26 oz jar marinara sauce
- 1 cup water

Instructions

1. In a large skillet, heat the oil over medium heat. Add the squash and zucchini. Cook, stirring, until the vegetables are browned, about 8 minutes. Cool for 5 minutes.
2. In a large bowl, combine the ricotta, 1 cup of the provolone, the parmesan, eggs, parsley, salt, and pepper. Transfer the cheese mixture to a large resealable storage bag.
3. Push the mixture toward one corner and twist the bag closed. Make a three-quarter-inch cut in the corner of the bag and squeeze the filling into each pasta tube.
4. In a bowl, combine the marinara sauce and water. Spread ⅔ cup into each of two 2-quart baking dishes. Divide the manicotti between the baking dishes, arranging in a single layer. Top with the remaining marinara sauce.
5. Cover one pan with foil and bake for 45 minutes. Remove the foil and sprinkle with ¼ cup provolone cheese. Bake 10 minutes more, or until the cheese melts.

The first instruction step mentions squash, but only zucchini appears in the ingredient list. Yield is 15 manicotti pieces (not servings of people).
