Ingredients

- 2 pints cherry tomatoes
- 3 garlic cloves (we mince it) — halved
- olive oil
- 8 oz feta
- 1 tsp salt
- ⅓ tsp black pepper
- 16 oz rigatoni or other short pasta
- basil — chopped

Instructions

1. Preheat oven to 400 degrees.
2. In a 13 x 9 in. baking dish, combine 2 pints cherry tomatoes, 3 halved garlic cloves and ¼ cup olive oil.
3. Place 8 oz feta in center, moving tomatoes so cheese sits on pan bottom.
4. Drizzle feta with another ¼ cup olive oil; sprinkle with 1 tsp salt and ¼ tsp pepper (we also put red pepper flakes, basil, oregano, etc).
5. Bake until tomatoes split and garlic softens, 30-40 minutes.
6. Meanwhile, cook 16 oz. rigatoni or other short pasta according to package directions for al dente.
7. Drain, reserving 1 cup pasta water. Stir feta mixture, lightly pressing tomatoes, until combined. Add pasta; toss to combine. Stir in enough reserved pasta water to achieve desired consistency.
8. Sprinkle with coarsely chopped basil.
