Broiled Salmon with Pesto

PAREVE ✓ LEFTOVERS

Prep 30 min Cook 15 min Total 45 min Serves 4

Ingredients

Salmon

- salmon — tail and thin parts removed for even thickness, bones removed, patted dry
- 1 tbsp kosher salt
- 2 tbsp honey

Pesto

- 1/4 cup almonds
- 1 chili pepper — cleaned
- 4 cloves garlic
- 4 anchovies — rinsed and patted dry
- 6 oz arugula
- 1/4 cup extra virgin olive oil
- 1/4 cup lemon juice
- 1.5 tsp kosher salt

Instructions

1. For even thickness, remove the tail and any thin parts of the salmon, and remove any bones.
2. Sprinkle with the 1 tablespoon kosher salt and refrigerate 1–4 hours.
3. Set the oven rack 7 inches from the broiling element.
4. Pat the salmon dry with paper towels, then smear with the honey.
5. Broil at 500°F for 6 minutes, turning halfway through.
6. Lower the heat to 250°F and cook 7.5–9 more minutes, turning halfway through, until the internal temperature reaches 125°F. Cover loosely with aluminum foil if it gets too dark.
7. Meanwhile, make the pesto: blitz the almonds, chili pepper, garlic, and anchovies in a food processor for 15 seconds.
8. Add the arugula, olive oil, lemon juice, and salt, and blitz 30 seconds more.
9. Spoon the pesto over the broiled salmon and serve.

Tips

- Keep it from burning: If the salmon gets too dark under the broiler, cover it loosely with aluminum foil while it finishes.

Text submission. The salmon quantity was not specified in the source. Anchovies appeared in parentheses in the source; kept as written (kosher fish). The 1–4 hour salt rest is passive, not counted in prep or cook time.
