Ingredients

Soup

- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 tbsp onion soup mix
- 2 tsp salt
- 1/2 tsp black pepper — ground
- 1/3 cup butter
- 2 large onions — thinly sliced
- 6 cup water
- 6 baguette slices
- 1 cup Mozzarella cheese — shredded

Garlic Baguette

- 1 French-style baguette
- 1/4 cup butter — melted
- 2 cloves garlic — minced

Instructions

1. Mix the flour, onion soup mix, salt, and pepper in a small bowl. Set aside. (The family's version omits the sugar.)
2. In a large pot, melt the butter. Add the onions and caramelize about 25 minutes on low heat, mixing occasionally. Add the flour mixture to the onions and stir to create a roux. Slowly add the water to the roux, stirring. Bring to a boil, reduce the heat, and simmer 30 to 40 minutes.
3. Preheat the oven to broil. Ladle the soup into 6 oven-safe bowls. Float a baguette slice on top of each bowl. Sprinkle about 2 tablespoons of the shredded mozzarella onto each slice. Set the bowls on a cookie sheet and place under the broiler for 4 minutes. Serve immediately.
4. For the garlic baguette: preheat the oven to 400°F. Slice the baguette on a diagonal about 1-inch thick and place on a cookie sheet lined with baking paper. Brush each slice with melted butter and sprinkle with the minced garlic. Bake 10 minutes.
